The Critically-Acclaimed, Award-Winning setting of Numenera. Now for 5e!

They say there have been eight worlds before ours. Eight times the people of this planet built civilizations we can't even imagine now. They spoke to the stars, reshaped the creatures of the world, and mastered form and essence. They built cities and machines that have since crumbled to dust, leaving only their barest remnants.

This is the Ninth World. The people of the prior worlds are gone—scattered, disappeared, or transcended. But traces of their works remain, containing some germ of their original function. To the ignorant, these workings of the ancients are magic. But the wise know differently. . . .

Beneath the Monolith brings the critically acclaimed setting of Numenera to 5e. Explore the ruins of incomprehensible civilizations. Discover ancient technologies so advanced that most people think they're magic. Encounter creatures weird, fierce, and dangerous. Open doors to new worlds and alternate dimensions. And, perhaps, unlock some of the mysteries of the prior worlds.

- ◆ Famed D&D designer Monte Cook brings his signature setting to Fifth-edition players!
- ◆ Numenera has won the Origins Award for Best RPG, the ENnie Gold medal for Best Setting and Product of the Year, and many, many other awards.
- ◆ Perhaps the most critically acclaimed setting of recent years.
- ◆ Filled with beautiful, compelling artwork that shows off a setting unlike anything D&D players have seen before. It sells itself!
- ◆ Over 100,000 copies of Numenera have been sold—but your D&D players are an untapped audience for this exciting fantasy setting!
