I'M A GUIDE! READY TO RUN YOUR OWN ADVENTURES?

I'm a Guide gives you a hands-on, step-by-step book for kids who are ready to take on the role of Guide. Easy-to-follow instructions help kids run a simple adventure, learning along the way so they can go on to run more advanced stories, or even make up their own—and achieve a wild success at being a Guide!

But that's not all: I'm a Guide comes bundled with a bunch of great stuff for helping Guides explore Storia. This product also contains the storybook and mini-adventure Lucy Lawful and the Awful Waffle, a Storia coloring book, and character standups made of sturdy board.

This expansion requires the No Thank You, Evil! game to play.

- ◆ Seriously: Do you have an RPG customer with children who doesn't want their kid to become a great GM?
- ◆ A little product chock-full of great components. The standups alone will be a big hit.
- ◆ No Thank You, Evil! brings parents and families into your store!
